

UOB Lady's Savings Account Privileges – MHC

1 What have we tied up with MHC?

Through the UOB Lady's Savings Account, our accountholders will enjoy

- $13 Medical Consultation
- Free Annual Health Screening

These services are offered through our tie up with MHC Asia.

2 If I have opened the UOB Lady's Savings Account, can I immediately start utilizing the flat $13 medical consultation rate and free annual Health Screening?

- Upon account opening, you will need to proceed to UOB TMRW to download the UOB Lady's Savings Account eCard.
- Whilst downloading the eCard, you will be prompted to register with MHC.
- Upon Successful registration with MHC, you will be immediately be able to start utilizing the flat $13 medical Consultation rate and free annual health screening.

3. How do I utilize the exclusive medical consultation rate across MHC Asia Groups' panel of 500 clinics network?

Step 1: Download the UOB TMRW app

Step 2: Tap on UOB Lady's Savings Account

Step 3: Tap on View eCard (alternatively access your eCard via Services – Partner Services)

Step 4: Register your details on the MHC enrolment page

Step 5: Upon successful registration, the Lady's Savings Account eCard will appear

Step 6: Flash the UOB Lady's Savings Account eCard at the clinic to be entitled to the MHC benefits

4. I understand I can add dependent to enjoy the flat $13 medical consultation rate, how does that work?

- A UOB Lady's Accountholder can add up to 4 dependents to enjoy the flat $13 medical consultation rate
- The 4 dependents can be of any gender and any age
- The 4 dependent can only enjoy the flat $13 medical consultation rate and are unable to enjoy the free annual health screening

5. If I would like to change/add dependents post registration with MHC Asia Group, can it be done and how?

Your registered dependent details will be displayed and can be managed through the MyMHC application. For more queries, you can also drop MHC Asia Group an email enquiry for support: uobladyaccount@mhcasia.com

6. For registered dependents, what would they need to present to enjoy the preferred consultation rate?

MHC Asia Group will require registered dependents to present their NRIC and download the MyMHC application to present the MyMHC eCard for identification and verification. In the event the registered dependent does not have the MyMHC eCard, the UOB Lady's Savings Account holder must accompany the registered dependent and present her UOB Lady's Savings Account eCard during the visit.
