Fund Description

The Income Fund is an actively managed fixed income strategy with a primary goal of maximizing current income and a secondary goal of capital appreciation. This fund seeks to target a competitive and consistent level of income while also maintaining a focus on total return. The fund aims to achieve this by employing PIMCO's best income-generating ideas across a broad diversified range of global fixed income sectors with an eye on risk-management.

The fund is designed to provide liquidity when needed. The fund taps into multiple areas of the global bond market, and employs PIMCO's vast analytical capabilities and sector expertise to help temper the risks of high income investing. This approach seeks to provide consistent income over the long term.

About the Benchmark

Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate (Euro Hedged) Index represents securities that are SEC-registered, taxable, and dollar denominated. The index covers the U.S. investment grade fixed rate bond market, with index components for government and corporate securities, mortgage pass-through securities, and asset-backed securities. These major sectors are subdivided into more specific indices that are calculated and reported on a regular basis.

Unless otherwise stated in the prospectus or in the relevant key investor information document, the Fund is not managed against a particular benchmark or index, and any reference to a particular benchmark or index in this factsheet is made solely for risk or performance comparison purposes.
